

Thomas Glendahl

Thomas Glendahl, was born in Sweden in 1946, and educated in the United States and Europe; and currently maintains homes in Waterloo, Belgium; Ferragudo, Portugal, and Tiburon, CA.

Mr. Glendahl graduated with a Master of Business Administration degree in international marketing from Gothenburg School of Economics in 1970.

His professional experience includes: Commercial Attaché with the Swedish Chamber of Commerce in Paris, France
Investment Banker with Barclay Securities (London, England)
Director of Interstudy in San Francisco, CA, CEO of Sitzmat, Inc., (San Francisco, CA), ; and Founder of ASPECT International Language Schools in San Francisco in 1982, which was sold to Sylvan Learning (Nasdaq)/Laureate in 1998.

This included ASPECT Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) non-profit international student exchange organization.

Since 1998, he has been an independent investor and consultant. In addition to serving on the Board of Directors of Applied Nanoscience Inc. (US), Mr. Glendahl is currently a director or board member of several companies, including: MCH Telecom (Turkey); Transnico International Group SA (Belgium), Great Brazil Express (Brazil), ASPIRE Education (US), Equity Dynamics and Global Direct Partners (Sweden), Aitellu Technologies (Sweden and US) and SPOKO FinTech Ventures.

