

Alexandra Burillo

I am honored to be part of Grant's Crusade, a cause that holds deep personal significance for me.

My beloved little brother, who was neurodivergent, faced many challenges in a world that didn't fully understand or support him. His experience fuels my dedication to this mission.

I strongly believe in the power of organizations like this to create meaningful change—empowering individuals to embrace who they are and thrive.

Through our work, we can make a lasting impact on the lives of children like my brother.

I am so proud to contribute to this cause and look forward to the incredible achievements and success stories we will build together—driven by peace and the enduring memory of Grant.
